Dear U.S. District Court,

I'm corresponding regarding the Judgment against the ALB Enterprises by the Dept. of Labor and it's outcome. I'd like to ask the Dept. of Labor to ask the U.S. District Court to get a court order to dissolve the Corporation called ALB Enterprise as it has violated the law.

The law states that a corporation must be law abiding of which this ALB Enterprises was in violation of the federal law, if not also the state of Massachusetts law.

The alleged owner is Michael Baniukiewicz. He was enjoined by the Federal Labor Department for violating the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. He is forced to recover unpaid wages and liquidated damages. ALB Enterprises will be repaying according to the Court plan up until sometime in 2008. (U.S. District court 05-1013 MLW)

Re: ALB Enterprizes, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam,

The letter is in response to your inquiry regarding ALB Enterprizes, Inc.

The court documents provided do not include an order from the court to the Corporations Division to dissolve this corporation. The Corporations Division is unable to dissolve a corporation in this matter without a court order.

The U.S District Court for the District of Massachusetts retains jurisdiction over this court order and any issues regarding its enforcement. If you have any questions regarding the court order, please direct those questions to the Court.

Very truly yours,
